Music Director:

Music Director Joe Stanton has decided to step down from the Board. His successful music career will not leave him with the time to devote to the position. Joe still offers his help and we feel he is still a part of our team.

With the vacancy on the Board for a Music Director we are looking for someone with contacts to fill this position.

With the exception of Joe Stanton, everyone on the Board returned and Cindy Kissler has become our Communications and Membership Director.
